I'm glad I can't boil You down, or give a full account, of Who You are
I wanna figure You out, I can't just let You be, my Mystery
Every time I'm missing You, You're not gone, I'm just confused

[V2]
Why am I oblivious, isn't it obvious, You're glory in the sky
There is always hope, because I know, I will feel You again
Every time I'm missing You, You're not gone, I'm just confused

Look up, look up, look up, look up
As little as I see, I know You're all around me

You're the mystery, You're the mystery

Uncontainable, unfathomable, Maker of the galaxies

Give me the knowledge of Your glory, it's worth more than gold
Open my eyes to see Your beauty surrounding me
