[V1]

.3 4 1

I would ask you to come to fill this place with Your glory
I would beg you, to let me find You as though You were small

[P]

.2 3 4

But You open my eyes
There's always more of You to find

[C]

.5 2 6 4

You are God Who Is near
Just as much as You are far
And I know you live inside my heart
I remember, You encompass us all

[V2]

I am coming, and already going
I cannot keep myself from moving but You are steady, never changing
Always close at hand

[B]

.2 3 4

Bestow unto me
The knowledge of Your glory
